Vermont PBS Garners Three New England Emmy Nominations

Mister Chris and Friends Moments and Must See VT Receive Recognition from Peers

Winooski, VT – May 7, 2021 – Vermont PBS proudly announces it has been nominated for three New England Emmy nominations this year. The New England Emmys are awarded for excellence in video content. Winners will be announced during a virtual ceremony on June 26.

The Vermont PBS nominations are:

*Mister Chris and Friends Moments*, a set of live-action short videos, is nominated in the Children/Youth category. This series accompanies the full-episode, Emmy-award winning series *Mister Chris and Friends*, a joyful music series geared to kids age 3-6 that encourages learning, exploration, and fun for the entire family.

*Must See VT*, a series that explores the diverse communities in our region to bring viewers stories of the unique people, places and events that shape our lives, is nominated in the categories for Lifestyle and Photography – Short Form.

“Vermont PBS takes pride in developing meaningful and compelling content that reflects the values of our community,” said Steve Ferreira, CEO of Vermont PBS. “Our team members who created these nominated programs deserve our applause for their outstanding work.”
