Vermont PBS and VPR Team Up for Election Poll

Colchester, VT – July 23, 2018 – What do Vermonters think about the coming election? What are the key issues on their minds? Vermont PBS and Vermont Public Radio have released the full results of a joint statewide poll that measures Vermonters' opinions the candidates and issues.

Vermont PBS and VPR conducted the public opinion poll from July 6 to July 16. The poll was conducted by Braun Research under the direction of Rich Clark, professor of political science at Castleton University and the former director of the Castleton Polling Institute. The poll surveyed 603 people living in all of Vermont's 14 counties via landline and mobile phone. The full results, methodology, and appendices are available for download at <http://projects.vpr.net/vpr-vermont-pbs-poll>.

Vermont PBS and VPR will provide extensive broadcast and digital coverage of the results this week, including:

- The VPR News Minute released every day this week on Vermont PBS and both Vermont PBS and VPR's social media channels;
- VPR newscasts;
- Vermont Edition, Monday at noon and 7 pm on VPR; and
- Vermont This Week, Friday at 7:30 on Vermont PBS.
